

In the name of Amen

I Joseph Gaultbreath of the County of Jefferson and State of Kentucky, being mindful of my mortality but of sound mind and disposing memory do constitute and ordain this my last will and testament in the manner following.

First I bequeath my body to the earth from which it was taken from whence I hope to receive it at the resurrection of the just.

Also I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Rebecca all my personal estate of every description of which I may die possessed to dispose of as she may think proper.

Also to my sons William, Robert and Alexander having given them all I intend to give them I give and bequeath to each of them One dollar.

Also to my son George I give and bequeath the farm on which I now live, except the dower right of my wife, which dower at her decease shall be his.

Also I give and bequeath to my daughters Nancy, Rebecca, Mary, Sally and Eleanor each one dollar; but it is my desire that my wife should dispose of such personal property to them as she can at one time spare. It is also my desire that they continue to live with her being as they remain unmarried. I charge to my son George I commit this charge that he render to my wife every assistance in the management of her affairs necessary for her convenience or comfort that may be needed. And I hereby constitute and appoint my son Alexander sole Executor of this my last will and testament.

to them as she can at a reasonable price. It is also my desire that they continue to live with her so long as they remain unmarried Church. To my son George I commit this charge that he render to my wife every assistance in the management of her affairs necessary for her convenience or comfort that may be needed.
And I hereby constitute and appoint my son Alexander sole Executor of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fifteenth day of November
One thousand eight hundred and thirty five.
