County in the State aforesaid at the Court house in the City of Louisville on the seventh day of March eighteen hundred and thirty one.

An Instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Joseph Wile deceased State of this County was produced in Court and proved by the oaths of Abraham Wile and James Pomeroy two of the subscribing witnesses thereto and thereupon the same was established to be the last will and testament of the said Joseph Wile deceased and ordered to be recorded and is recorded by me in my Office as Clerk of the said Court.

And at a County Court held for the County and at the Court house aforesaid on the second day of May eighteen hundred and thirty one. On motion it is ordered that the hearing of the proof of the Codicil to the will of Joseph Wile be continued till the next term of this Court. And on the motion of Abraham Wile (Sd) and Moses Kellar Executors of Abraham Wile by their Counsel leave is hereby granted them to take the Deposition of Abraham Wile to be read on the hearing of said Codicil. provided the parties interested have reasonable notice of the time when and place where the same shall be taken.

And at a County Court held for the County and at the Court house aforesaid on the fifth day of June 1831.

of my children or any one of my said Trustees appoint for that purpose under this Clause of my will

It is my desire my Executors hereafter named or such of them as take upon themselves the Administration of my estate, do sell as soon as practicable all my estate both real and personal, except the specific devises herein made, and collect all debts due to me, the money arising therefrom to be appropriated, first after payment of funeral expenses, to the payment of all my just debts and then to be equally divided so as to equalize among my children and Grand Children. All my estate having estimated the estate I have given and devised to my son Lewis Nite deceased and his children at seven thousand seven hundred and eight dollars, that given to my son Stephen Nite and his children at Seven thousand two hundred and seventy four dollars, that given to the Trustees for the benefit of my son Abraham Nite to five thousand two hundred and twenty dollars and that given to my son John Nite at eight thousand One hundred and ninety five dollars.

It is my desire that my Executors do compensate the Trustees herein appointed for the division of the partnerships lands and the settlement of the accounts thereof what shall be an equivalent for the trouble they may have in transacting the business.

It is my desire that the Trustees to whom I have devised trustees do compensate the Trustees hereunto appointed for the division of the partnership lands and the settlement of the accounts thereof what shall be an equivalent for the trouble they may have in transacting the business.

It is my desire that the Trustees to whom I have devised in trust for the benefit of my son Abraham Niles estate shall remunerate themselves for their trouble in transacting that business out of the profits of the estate so devised to them.

Lastly I nominate and appoint my son John Niles and my trusty friends Moses Kellam and Wm. Fry and my Executors.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 15th day of June 1831

Joseph Niles (Seal)
