

In the name of God Amen. I Josiah Harding of Jefferson County in the State of Kentucky, being weak in body but of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, Considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me hence. Do therefore make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following. That is to say -

First and principally I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God and my body to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors herein after named. And after my debts and funeral charges are paid I devise and bequeath as follows - I give and devise unto Nathan and John Harding (my two brothers) all my right, title or claim to a tract of land lying in Montgomery County, State of Maryland which ~~was~~ willed to them by our father, the said Nathan and John Harding and their heirs and assigns in fee simple. And Whereas the property which I now possess hath been chiefly acquired by the joint industry and frugality of my dear wife and myself and think some addition to her dower or third necessary, the better to enable her to live with convenience and comfort, I do therefore by this my will, devise and bequeath the following property to her and her heirs forever. Two hundred acres of land whereon we reside, with all the improvements and appurtenances thereunto belonging. This tract to be divided in the following manner, by running a line from South East to the North West line as dividing line between this and the place my sister Deborah Wheeler resides upon - with all my personal estate of every kind wheresoever found and ding line between this and the place my Sister Deborah Wheeler resides upon - with all my personal estate of every kind wheresoever found and of whatsoever nature it may consist to my dear wife, to her and her heirs forever I give and devise unto my Sister Deborah Wheeler the place whereon she now resides during her life free from any charge or incumbrance whatever, to have free use of the timber upon the part she resides for the support of said farm, this land to be divided as before mentioned, supposed to contain One hundred and twenty five acres. At the decease of my sister Deborah Wheeler my will and desire is that it shall be divided in the following manner between my two nephews John H. Wheeler and Josiah H. Wheeler. To John H. Wheeler I give and devise fifty acres whereon his mother resides with all the improvements thereon to him and his heirs forever. To Josiah H. Wheeler I give the residue of said lands supposed to contain Seventy five acres to him and his heirs forever. At the decease of my wife my will and desire is that to each of my nieces, daughters of my brother John deceased I give and devise to each one hundred dollars, Elizabeth Kettury and Caroline Harding out of the personal property devised to my loving wife. Further I give and devise to my nephew Josiah Harding, Son of my brother Nathan my riding horses with saddles and bridles. I give and bequeath to my wife all the residue of my estate to dispose of as she may think proper. And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my dear wife Ann Harding to be sole Executrix of this my last will and testament, revoking and annulling all former wills by me heretofore made, ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 25th day of May 1820
