

In the name of God Amen

I Matilda A. Kaupin of the County of Jefferson and State of Kentucky being sick and weak in body, but of sound and disposing mind and memory do make, ordain, publish and declare this and only to be my true last will and testament in manner and following to wit;

Item. It is my will and desire and I do hereby direct my Executors or the survivors of them hereinafter named to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my death as practicable out of my estate as hereinafter directed. It is my will and desire and I do hereby direct my Executors or the survivors of them to collect all monies due to me except hereinafter directed and apply the same to the discharge and payment of my debts.

Item. It is my will and desire and I do hereby direct that my Executors or the survivors of them do settle with my Uncle Nathaniel Beall and pay and allow all just demands against me for taxes or any other expenses on my lands out of any monies which he may owe me and which he has actually received, belonging for the sale of my lands or otherwise And where he has sold any of my lands and holds bonds or notes for the purchase money this or any name in or in whole or in part, my Executors or the survivors of them are hereby directed to receive transfers of the same and exonerate him therefrom and to collect and hold the

and ever after him I do hereby direct and do hereby direct as a part of my estate. And if in a final settlement of accounts he shall fall in my debt for moneys actually received him (not due). It is my will and desire and I do hereby direct that he pay the same to his present children in equal parts to whom I do hereby give and bequeath the same. And my law or the survivor of them shall not be bound to enforce the claim thereof from him as part of my estate.

It is my will and desire and I do hereby direct that Executor or the survivor of them do pay to my Cousin Anna McClanaghan the sum of six hundred dollars hereinafter directed to whom I do hereby give and bequeath the same.

Executor or the survivor of them do purchase so soon after my decease as practicable the following named negroes, which were in possession of my father Richard A. Manfins, out of monies arising from my estate as hereinafter directed. To wit: Oliver and his children George, Harifay, Matilda and Thomas, also Alice and John and three negro men named Henry, Harifay and the future increase of the females if any and emancipate them according to law at the costs of my estate, upon the condition however that they can be purchased at reasonable prices that said negroes comply with the requisitions of the law in this respect made and provided.

It is my will and desire to my Cousin Richard A. Galt and my Cousin forever my heirs and assigns.

to whom I do hereby give and bequeath the same. And no legatee or the survivors of them shall not be bound to enforce the collection thereof from him as part of my estate.

That said negroes comply with the requisitions of the laws in this case made and provided.

and desired to my Cousin, Norborn A Galt and his assigns forever my tract of land in the County of Wayne State of Kentucky on the Ohio River and the same was surveyed and patented to me by the State of Kentucky containing five hundred and thirty six acres.

he new lines on the same land, the said land being the same as that of my mother's death of my Brother Richard. It is my will and desire that the said land should be sold or the survivors of them should not be liable on the part of my estate in any manner to the purchaser or purchasers all my right, title, interest and claim of land to any lands which may have been sold by said father Richard and William H. Galt, of either of them and beyond a bound and otherwise. And upon the express condition that the purchaser or purchasers pay to my Executors or the survivors of them my proportion of the purchase money thereof if unpaid and due by them; And also to convey any lands which may have been sold by my legal agents since I became of age which have not already been conveyed by me upon the receipt of the purchase money if any be due according to the contracts of said Agents.

And I do hereby give and devise to Levi Tyler and James Beall, my interest in the same more or less in a tract of land situated and being in the County and State aforesaid on the waters of the River at short distance below Lewisville, the whole tract containing eleven hundred and eighty acres more or less, entered in the name of May & Beall and patented and surveyed in the name of James Beall and the same land which descended to me on the death of my said mother in trust for the following purposes to wit, to sell the same for the best price that can be obtained therefor either said mother in trust for the following purposes to wit, To sell the same for the best price that can be obtained therefor either publicly or privately for Cash or on a credit with or without interest And when the purchase money is paid to convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers with or without warranty as said by law and Swathmore may judge best and most to the interest of my estate and apply the proceeds after paying all necessary and proper expenses in making sale thereof and collecting and paying out the purchase money as follows To wit; First to pay to My dear one Cousin the sum of One thousand dollars, to whom I do hereby give and bequeath the same, And the residue to be equally divided between my Cousins Harriet McBeall, Louisa Beall, Mary Beall, Samuel Beall and William Beall children of Horner Beall and paid to them as they become of age or marry, to whom or their Survivors or survivors of them I do hereby give the same, and as to one so dying shall have a child or children, to which child or child or children shall be entitled to and receive it as though or parents shared as though they were living, said land sold so soon after my death as practicable.

I do hereby give and devise to my dear one and favorite Swathmore or the survivors of them all the rest and residue of my lands whether in the State of Kentucky, Virginia or elsewhere ever, in trust for the following purposes to wit, To sell, dispose of and convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers without delay and without interest for Cash or on a credit with or without interest as they may see fit.

I do hereby give and bequeath the same, And the residue to be equally divided between my Cousins Harriet M Beall, Lewis Beall, Samuel Beall and William Beall children of Horner Beall and paid to them as they become of age or marry, to whom or their survivor or survivors of them I do hereby give the same, and if no child or children shall have or children, in which case my child or children shall be entitled to and receive it or their parents share as though they were living, said land sold so soon after my death as practicable.

I do hereby give and devise to Lydia Tyler and Samuel Swainmy or the survivors of them all the rest and residue of lands whether in the State of Kentucky, Virginia or elsewhere ever, and trust for the full time and purchase price to sell, dispose of and convey the same at the purchase price desired without delay publishing notice for cash or credit with it without interest and without exception or the survivors of them and the heirs of the same.

I do hereby give and devise to the said Lydia Tyler and Samuel Swainmy or the survivors of them all the rest and residue of my estate and the same to be paid to them or their survivors or survivors of them as they become of age or marry, to whom or their survivor or survivors of them I do hereby give the same, and if no child or children shall have or children, in which case my child or children shall be entitled to and receive it or their parents share as though they were living, said land sold so soon after my death as practicable.

I Stephen ~~James~~ ^{James} of Jefferson County in the State of Kentucky do hereby make this as my last will and testament in the following to wit:

First, I desire and direct that all my just debts properly anticipated or my Executor hereafter to be named being satisfied their correctness be promptly paid after my funeral expenses been paid. For which purposes I desire that all my personal valuable property not hereinafter otherwise disposed of be sold to create a fund.

Secondly, I give to my wife Helen White for her own use to be disposed of or not at pleasure all my household and kitchen furniture and utensils including bedding and all kinds of wearing apparel &c. I also give to my said wife my horses Carr & Jack, six dogs to be chosen by her and all my poultry of every kind in like manner to be disposed of or not at discretion.

I also give to my said wife for and during her natural life the following negro slaves to wit: my negro man Sam my negrowoman Peggy and Susan her child also any issue either of them may have. And after her death the said negroes above mentioned to descend to and be equally divided among my children. I also give to my said wife during her natural life the following described land to wit: The house yard and stable yard including all the houses and buildings now erected and the home spring, the Orchard and a lot West thereof A Garden to be laid off where she may elect not including more than one acre, a lot South of the yard and Spring to wit:

A Garden to be laid out in the north end and a lot West thereof than One acre, a lot South of the yard and Spring to extend South to the new Division fence. Between the pasture and ground and East not further than the East Orchard fence Continued, West to the line dividing my land from my father's the lot West of the Orchard to extend West to said line between me and my father. Also the privilege of getting wood for fuel and timber for sails or other needful uses anywhere in my tract of land.

Thirdly, I give to my son Joseph Mils' my rifle gun, also a gun presented to me by John Cox, but if Mester should call for said gun it is to be given up to him.

Fourthly, That part of my farm and land not devised to my wife
I desire to be rented out annually, or for a longer time than one year and the proceeds to be appropriated for the maintenance and education of my children during their minority. And upon the event of intermarriage or coming to age of either of them, the said land to be divided between them as nearly equal as a division can be made, or if a division can't be made, the land to be sold and the money divided; but in the event of a division I recommend to my now infant children and desire that one or the other may have priority or preference to strangers in the purchase. And after the death of my wife the property given to her during life and any increase that may be the equally divided between my children, specially enjoining a prudent course of conduct and reservation of the profits me and my father. Also the permission of getting wood for fuel and timber for sails or other needful uses anywhere on my tract of land.

Thirdly. I give to my son Joseph M. to my rifle gun, also a gun presented to me by John Cox, but if Nelson should call for said gun it is to be given up to him.

division can be made, or if a division can't be made, the land to be sold and the money divided; but in the event of a sale I recommend to my now infant children and desire that
in the purchase. And after the death of my wife the property given to her during life and any increase that may be be equally divided between my children, especially encouraging prudent courses of conduct and reserving in the possession of one of them my homestead and the grounds allotted to life estate to my wife.

I desire that my negro man Edman may with any deed she may have [illegible]

security for the Execution of it and having entire confidence in her due execution of it and having appropriated sufficient for the payment of my debts.
