Michael Ruffay being now of sound mind and knowing the uncertainty of life do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore made.
First I devise and give to my Executors hereafter mentioned my hole estate real and personal to be held by them in fee simple as Trustees subject to the following uses and trusts To wit. My said Executors shall make an estimate of all my household and kitchen furniture and hand the same over to my wife as her separate property and my Executors shall manage the residue of my estate as they may deem most for the interest of my family And out of the rents and profits they shall pay annually to my mother Sarah Payne an annuity of fifty dollars a year and my wife may live.

And my said Executors shall appropriate One third of remaining net proceeds of my estate to the support of my wife and One third to the support and execution of each of my children until they arrive at the age of twenty one years, And when my youngest child shall arrive at full age my said Executors shall divide my estate equally between my said wife and my said two children Eliza and Nancy and if either of my children shall die before they arrive at the age of twenty one years and the other shall live to the age of twenty one, my said Executors shall in that event divide my estate equally between my wife Mary and her surviving child. And if both of my said children shall die before they or either of them arrive at age in that event my said Executors shall divide the moiety of my estate which would have gone to my surviving child equally between my wife, my sister Honor and Elizabeth Buffay a child of Sarah of Cincinnati paying first out of said moiety to the Catholic Church of Louisville two hundred dollars. Provided moreover that if my wife shall marry again, in that event my said Executors shall not wait until my children arrive at full age, but shall in a convenient time, say within One year from her marriage give to my wife in fee simple One third part of my estate if both children be then living or one half if only one be living in lieu of the other devised to her in this will, in which division the value of my household furniture shall be estimated and considered as a part of her portion and in any division the value only shall be devised to her in this will or in any other division the value of my household furniture shall be estimated and considered as a part of her portion and in any division the value only shall be looked to leaving to my Executors to designate the property to each legatee.

And my Executors shall at such time as they may consider it convenient for my estate pay two hundred dollars for the education of said Elizabeth Huffay of Cincinnati out of the rents, issues and profits of my estate.
Secondly, I appoint John O. Beirne and James R. Rude Executors of this my last will and testament and request the County Court of Jefferson County not to require security from them and they are to be paid a reasonable compensation for their services in attending to my services in attending to my estate.

My Executors may give to Michael Collier as much time as they please for the payment of his note to me or they may cancel the same if my Executors think proper to do so.

In Testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal this 24th day of April 1832
