

I Reuben Field of the County of Jefferson and State of Kentucky do make and constitute that as my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills.

It is my will and desire that my wife Mary Field shall have and enjoy forever all my estate both real and personal and to be disposed of by her as she may think fit. And whereas I was married to Mary Myrtle in the State of Indiana in the year 1858 by a man by the name of Smith who professed to be a licensed Minister of the Gospel and duly authorized to solemnize marriages, I have since learned that this was not the fact and that the marriage between myself and said Mary Myrtle is illegal, should this turn out to be the case and the aforesaid devise to her as my wife be insufficient in law for her to hold and enjoy my estate, I do hereby give and bequeath to her as Mary Myrtle all my estate both real and personal forever and to be disposed of by her as she may think proper. In Witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this 25th day of April 1852
