

Reflecting on the uncertainty of life and believing it to be my duty to dispose of my property so as to produce the greatest satisfaction and benefit to my family I make this my last will and testament.

I give to my son George my clock and also to my daughter Rosanna all my kitchen furniture, and the balance of my property not disposed of I wish to be sold and the proceeds of the sale with the debts due me equally divided among all my children. After all my debts are paid I hereby appoint my son Jacob Brentlinges Executor of my will. As Witness my hand and seal this 22^d day of March 1831
