

I, Thomas M. McClanahan of Louisville Jefferson County, State of Kentucky, do hereby certify my last will and testament. After the full payment of my just debts, I give, bequeath and devise all the property and interest or interest of whatsoever kind of which I am owner or possessed, to my father and mother, my brother Ezekiel McCallister, David William McClanahan and my sister Margaret wife of William Ward, Mary Holloway wife of George Davidson, Charlotte wife of William McSherraton, Maria Watkins wife of Hugh Watkins, to be equally divided amongst them and their heirs alike, except that my father and mother are only to have one share between them.

I appoint the fore mentioned Ezekiel McCallister, David William McClanahan and Hilary Field of Louisville Executors of this my last will and testament, with power to sell and dispose of so much of my estate as may be necessary to pay my just debts. It is my desire that no security shall be required of my Executors by the County Court before they are permitted to qualify as such. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty sixth day of July eighteen hundred and twenty five.

Thos. McLanahan

State of Kentucky

At a County Court held for Jefferson County in the State aforesaid at the Court house in Louisville on the third day of October One thousand, eight hundred and twenty five. The within and foregoing instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Thomas McLanahan aforesaid was produced in Court and proved by the oaths of Samuel Nicholas and Horace B. Hill two of the Subscribers witnesses thereto to be the last will and testament of the said McLanahan and thereupon the same was established to be the last will and testament of the said Thomas McLanahan deceased and was ordered to be recorded and is recorded.
