shared and distribute the same among the children of my beloved wife Fanny Roberts. And I do hereby constitute and appoint my wife Fanny Roberts my Executrix and direct that she administer my estate without giving security of any kind.

And whereas I hold a deed from James Monroe as President of the United States for three hundred and twenty acres of land in the Territory of Arkansas. I do hereby direct that my said Executrix sell the said tract of land for the best price she can get for it. And I do hereby clothe her with full power and authority to sell and convey the same and direct that my said Executrix pay all my just debts and that she make no distribution to any of her children until they arrive at the age of twenty one years.

In Testimony whereof I Thomas Roberts have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this first day of September 1830
