

In the name of God Amen, I Thomas Stafford of Jefferson County Kentucky calling to mind the mortality of the body and that it is appointed for all men to die do make and constitute this my last will and testament Viz That is I commit my Soul to God and my body to be decently buried at the direction of my Executors. As for what worth property it hath pleased God to endow me I dispose of in manner and form following.

form following.

First. I will and bequeath to my wife Eve her beds and bedding, her wearing apparel, all her household furniture of every kind, also the span mare now my property, also her riding saddle and two milk cows to hold the same or dispose of it at her pleasure.

[illegible]

Thirdly, I allow the half of the waggon and half of the wind mill
One third of the stock of hogs all now my property, to be sold and the money arising from the sale of the aforementioned property with my notes, bonds and Book accounts to be divided equally

One third of the stock of hogs all now my property, to be sold and the money arising from the sale of the aforementioned property with my notes, bonds and Book accounts to be divided equally amongst my children, namely Benjamin, Stafford, Elizabeth Bishop, Sarah Ward, Mary Warwick, Margaret Shiger, Thomas Stafford, Martha Young and Susanna Bury Shaw and share alike - Fourthly, I allow my wife to have her maintenance of my plantation during her natural life, likewise her stock to be maintained as before mentioned.

Fifthly and lastly I appoint my sons, John Stafford, Benjamin Stafford and Thomas Stafford to execute this my last will and testament, revoking all former Wills and testaments by me made In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal this 11th day of October One thousand Eight hundred and ninety.

Affect. Amanda Wilkins } Thomas Stafford ^{his} Seal
James Guthrie, William Guthrie } mark

At a County Court held for Jefferson County at the Court House in Louisville On the eleventh day of October 1813, the within instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Thomas Stafford deceased, was produced in Court and proved by the oath of James Guthrie and William Guthrie two of the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded in my office, Jas. Horden Popw Clk