

I George Otaval Smith

of Sepamine County and State of Kentucky do constitute this my last will and testament - My will and desire is that the men that is appointed my Executors to this my last will together with the consent of my wife make sale of any of my property to pay my just debts - My will and desire further is that after my Executors receive as much out of Mosby's twenty thousand acres claim now in my name by deed from James Brown attorney for Littlebury Mosby heir at law of John Mosby deceased and from Wade Mosby as will pay me seven hundred and fifty pounds and if there should be any land gained in the ^{law} suit Smith against Frost, that is, over and above the four

four hundred acres my original purchase of John Craig is to be added to my plantation on said four hundred acres and to redempt for every acre so gained by said suit ~~to redempt~~ twenty - shillings out of said seven hundred and fifty pounds except fifty acres sold by Lewis Craig senior of Mason County to Samuel Wells of Sepamine County agreeable to an article between said Lewis and Samuel and further if my estate should suffer by any of my engagements in behalf of Lewis Craig senior of Mason County all such damages also are to be made good to my estate out of Mosby's claim above mentioned and after my estate is made completely clear of all damages by engaging in behalf of said Lewis Craig and the seven hundred and fifty pounds paid making the above allowances for any land gained out of said Frost's land should any surplus remain it is to be returned to said Lewis Craig but not before provided he the said Lewis complies with his agreement of being at all the expence and trouble of investigating and clearing of all said claims interfering with the Hoobys claim. My will and desire further is that my executors make all conveyances that I am by agreement to make but convey no other right but my own nor defend them from no other person but such as claim under me and I do by these presents authorize my Executors to complete all contracts entered into by me not already fully finished and to settle all business unfinished and to make all divisions of land undivided between David Cook as locator in joint partnership with myself in the different tracts of land in the name of Thomas Smith George Smith and Edward Friend and do all things necessary in such cases - My will and desire further is that all my estate be continued in the possession of my wife if it be her wish after paying my just debts and make my younger children equal with my ~~first~~ married children provided she can do it without rendering her unable to raise and school the rest which is one twenty pound horse creature two cows and calves and a good feather bed and furniture and after all are disposed with that proportion an equal division of ^{things} ~~any~~ ~~that~~ remain at her death. The above mentioned portions to be at marriage or as they come of age which portions to be given if my wife and Executors ~~thinks them~~ portions can be spared without leaving her too much and prevent her having an opportunity of raising her younger children well should my wife die before my younger children is raised and disposed. My will and desire is that my

Executors to divide my estate amongst all my children that their portions be as nearly equal as they can make them including what my five first children had received at marriage in their portions and if any of the rest should have received any thing so add that to their portions also after reserving out of my estate as much as will finish raising and schooling any of the children that may not be grown but if all grown at her death and equal division among the whole including as above ~~directed~~ after paying themselves for their services in the estate. My will and desire further is that my son Philip Smith continue with his mother if it is their choice and my Executors make him compensation for his services and lastly I do appoint my Trusty friend William Hughes and John Hooty and Richard Lafon Executors to this my last will and testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 24th day of January 1809

291
