The foregoing appraisement of the estate of James Brown Sr. was this day returned to court examined & ordered to be recorded which is done.

Test J. A. H. Price Clerk

In the name of God amen. I Catherine E. Price being sound in mind and memory thanks to God and considering the weakness of death and the uncertainty of life do make and hereby constitute this my last will and testament in writing. First I hereby will and devise and by these presents fully give unto my beloved husband Doctor John L. Price the whole of the farm in which are now live together with all the appurtenances in any way thereto belonging which farm contains between two hundred and thirty acres of land and situated in the county of Jepsum State of Ky. about one half mile East of Mckinstryville and on the waters of Little Jepsum creek which aforesaid farm was conveyed in trust by my beloved grandfather William Brown to my beloved uncle John M. Brown for my own proper use and comfort and which conveyance gave me the special privilege of selling it to whomsoever I please. Second I hereby will & bequeath unto my dear beloved husband Doctor John L. Price a negro man named Bob aged about thirty or thirty five years old who was conveyed to me by deed of gift by my friend and relative by marriage John Brooks Jr. which deed gave me the privilege of disposing of him as I may please. Third I hereby make constitute and appoint my dear beloved husband Dr. John L. Price my sole executor I hereby revoke and annul all former wills by me made. Signed sealed and delivered in the presence of this eleventh day of January 1831
