In the name of God amen. I Adam McConwell of the County of Sepamun and Commonwealth of Kentucky being in a declining state of health and at all times knowing the consequence of life. But being in possession of the proper use of my reason and mental faculties judge it expedient to make a will to show how the little property which I possess may be disposed of after my death. I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife Frances McConwell all my property of whatsoever description to be wholly her during her natural life. And it is further my will and desire that at the death of my wife the property which she may be possessed of and particularly that which I now bequeath her to be equally divided between my two daughters Fanny & Mary and should either of my said daughters die before their mother in that case the survivor of them is to inherit all that I have said and possess of & I give my dear beloved wife the Executor of this my last will and testament making all other wills or wills heretofore by me made.
