

The sum of money which I have given her, be sold by my Executors herein after appointed, and the proceeds of the sale be equally divided between my eight daughters. It is my wish that the three negroes and their increase be purchased by some of my family, in the lifetime of my son George Christianman I gave and conveyed to him, by deed, two hundred acres of my land which was laid off on the west side of the Hickman road, which together with the other property which I had given to him, agreeably to a Book account which I have kept of the distribution of property to my children, I deem a full portion and therefore give to his heirs nothing more. Then I think I gave and bequeath to my son Lewis Christianman, One horse saddle and bridle, one negro boy named Patrick. I further give to my son Lewis two hundred and fifty acres of the tract of land and plantation on which I now live, to be laid off on the east side of the Hickman road, to have possession thereof when he shall marry or arrive to the age of twenty one years but not to have possession of the third part which is devised to his mother until after her death unless it is his great pleasure to give it to him sooner. It is my will and wish that my son Lewis be raised and have a good English education given him and the expenses to be paid out of my estate. If my son Lewis should die without issue it is then my will and desire that the land and other property which I have devised to him be sold by my Executors and the proceeds of the sale be equally divided between my eight daughters or the heirs of their bodies. Then if it is my will and desire that the balance of the plantation after my wife has taken her third part be devised out by my Executors to the best advantage. It is my will, and my Executors are hereby authorized to make sale of the one hundred acres of my land lying on the west side of the Hickman road and fifty acres to be laid off on the east of the tract adjoining Martin Mays land, my lot in and adjoining the town of Nicholasville, and all the rest of my estate both real personal not herein particularly devised, or heretofore given to my children, and the proceeds of the sales together with the money arising from the rent abroad, the money which may be coming to me from my father's estate, and the money which I may have on hand at my death, or which may be then due me (except the two hundred dollars given to my beloved wife) be placed by my Executors in one fund, and by them equally divided between my eight daughters or the heirs of their bodies, to wit, Ellen Miss of Joseph Miller, Polly McNeill wife of Samuel McNeill, Fanny Hill, wife of James Hill, Betty Bradshaw wife of Lemuel Bradshaw, Rebecca Fisher wife of James Fisher, Love Morgan, wife of William Morgan, Nancy Bradshaw wife of John Bradshaw, and Hannah Whampbell wife of John McWhampbell. And in as much as I have been unable in the gifts I have made to my daughters to make them all equal in value, one with another, which has always been my wish I have kept a Book of accounts in which I have charged each with the advances made to them, and it is according to the proportion which those advances bear to each other that I wish them to receive each their portion of the estate embraced in this my will so that they may be made equal, taking into view what they have received and what they are to receive. I wish to enable my Executors or such of them as may think proper to act to carry my intention in this respect into full effect, I most earnestly desire that they may take for their guide the account Book aforesaid, and make division among my daughters of the estate awarded for that purpose, so that finally all shall be equal. It is furthermore my desire that the negroes which may be sold be purchased in by the family unless they shall choose to be sold to persons out of the family. And lastly I do hereby appoint Samuel McNeill, William Pagan and Samuel Barkley Executors of this my last will and testament or such of them as may choose to qualify to carry the same into effect. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eighth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty six, hereby revoking all other wills by me heretofore written or signed.
