In the name of God Amen. I George S. Jameson of Jefferson County and State of Kentucky being in a low state of health, but of sound mind and memory do make this my last will and testament, in this manner and form, to wit: thinking all other wills, my will and desire is that all such Debt as I do justly owe at the time of my death be paid out of my estate, and as to my estate both real and personal I dispose thereof as followeth. I give unto my beloved wife Emily S. Jameson all my estate both real and personal to dispose of in her own way for the benefit of herself and her forever, except a certain tract of land lying in Jameson County being the same I purchased of James Flowed with 19 acres attached to it from the tract I did said. I do hereby which land or parcel of land I give to my nephew Nicholas J. Gatwood to him and his heirs forever. I therefore constitute and appoint my wife Emily executrix to this my last will and testament, her heirs whom I herewith set my hand and seal this 23 day of Sept 1829.
