I Major General Adam Stephen of Marlburg in the county of Berkeley and commonwealth of Virginia being of perfect and disposing mind and memory and desirous to settle and dispose of that estate wherof I am at this time seised and possessed do make publick pronouncement and declare this my last will & testament in manner and form following.
 I do give and devise to my grand son Adam Stephen Dandridge and his heirs forever, subject to the legacies and this innumerable hereafter imposed and charged thereon all my lands in the county of Berkeley except the plantation I purchased of John Howard containing by estimation five hundred acres be the same more or less and except the tract of land I purchased of Morgan Morgan & George W. Dandridge Esq. where the town of Marlburg stands & which includes my old and new mills together with one hundred and thirty acres of land below the mill except ing and contiguous to the same and upon both sides of the stream also except two hundred acres adjoining mans Quaker where Major Jack a free man lived and also except ten hundred and thirty acres or thereabouts to the same more or less which last mentioned tract I am at this time contracting to sell to a certain Adam Dandridge. I also give and bequeath to the said Adam Stephen all my stocks of horses, cattle, sheep & hogs two cows only excepted. I also give him my plantation situate & lots of whatever kind they be together with all my slaves except Lea and her offspring and also the daughter of Cole and also except one other week and such such as they shall make choice of from among my negroes.

then I do constitute and appoint my friends,

Guardians of my said grandson Adam Stephen Landridge and of the estate as well as personal herein before devised to him and it is my will and I desire that said Guardians shall hold and occupy the estate of what kind soever herein before devised to my said grandson Adam Stephen Landridge during his minority and until he attain the age of twenty one year and that they the said Guardians during that period have full and entire the profits of the said estate the rents of such lands as are devised not only excepted, and that they settle the guardians account every year with the court of the county of Berkeley, and that the profits of the said estate be applied at the discretion of the said Guardians to the maintenance and education of my said grandson so far as the same is necessary, the residue if any to be put into the Federal or State Bank as the said Guardians may judge best. But it is my earnest wish and desire that no expense be spared in giving to my said grandson the best education that can possibly be procured for him and that the Guardians give land and security to the estate. Now if my grandson Adam Stephen Landridge should die before he attain the age of twenty one year and without children then and not that event I give devise and bequeath the whole estate as well as personal herein before devised as bequeathed to him to my brother Robert Stephen his heirs and assigns forever. Now I give and bequeath unto Miss Phoebe Sherman the yearly sum or annuity of one hundred dollars to be paid to her by my executors yearly and every year from and after my decease for and during her natural life. I also give her two milk cows two ewes of old my cattle and a negro woman and child to be by her chosen from and among all my slaves which said woman and child I give and bequeath to Miss Phoebe Sherman during her natural life and after her decease the same to revert back and be considered as part of the estate herein before devised to my grandson Adam Stephen Landridge. I also desire that my executors shall immediately after my decease build for Miss Phoebe Sherman at my plantation called the Boxer a comfortable house with two brick chimneys and with two rooms above stairs and two below which house when built together with land sufficient for a yard and garden I give and devise to Miss Phoebe Sherman during her natural life.

Now I give and devise to my brother Robert Stephen and his heirs forever a tract of land containing eleven hundred acres be the same more or less situated in the district of Kentucky upon the head of Hickman creek near the town of Lexington it being the residue of that tract whereby I gave friend Benjamin Harrison two hundred acres. I also give and bequeath to my said brother Robert five hundred pounds Pennsylvania currency payable in bonds to be assigned to him by my executors herein after named. Now I wish and desire my executors herein after named to dispose of the plantation I purchased of John Stuart containing by estimation five hundred acres be the same more or less together with my new mill and the one hundred acres of land before excepted lying below here on the stream to be by them sold to the best advantage for ready money or upon credit at their discretion and the money arising therefrom to be by them vested in the said Baltimore or Philadelphia Bank at the discretion of my executors for the purpose herein after mentioned. Now I give and devise to Alexander the son of my brother Robert Steven a tract of land containing one thousand acres be the same more or less situated upon south side of Ohio river about ten or eleven miles above the mouth of Kentucky River to have and to hold the said tract of land to him the said Alexander his heirs and assigns forever. I also give and devise to the said Alexander son of my brother Robert and his heirs forever a tract of land containing one hundred and thirty five acres be the same more or less situated in the County of Hampshire about twenty miles above the town of Winchester and adjoining the lands formerly belonging to one Gaddison. I also give and bequeath to the said Alexander the sum of one hundred pounds Pennsylvania currency payable in bonds to be assigned to him by my executors upon his coming to the age of twenty one year.

Now I give and bequeath to Adam Stephen the second son of my brother Robert Stephen the sum of two thousand pounds Pennsylvania currency to be paid as is hereafter directed.

Now I give and bequeath to Moses Hunter the sum of five hundred pounds Pennsylvania currency payable in bonds to be assigned to him by my executors. I also give and devise to the said Moses Hunter one hundred acres of land, together with the preceding part of this will testament, being part of the tract where Moses Jack lives and adjoining the lands of said Moses Hunter to be laid off by a line running parallel to that of said Hunter, which two hundred acres I give and devise to the said Moses Hunter his heirs forever.

Now I give and bequeath to Ann Carolina Hunter daughter of Moses Hunter one thousand dollars to be paid her on her day of marriage. I also give and bequeath to the said Ann Carolina Hunter negro child and her appurtenances and also the daughter of negro later. But should the said Ann Carolina die before her day of marriage then and in that case I give and bequeath the money I have before devised to her to the children of Moses Hunter and Ann his wife to be equally divided among them.

Now I give and bequeath to my daughter Ann Hunter wife of Moses Hunter the sum of five hundred pounds.

If Moses Hunter should have a son by my daughter Ann his present wife, then I desire that my executors shall annually after said son attains the age of one year set the sum of twenty pounds Virginia currency in the Baltimore or Philadelphia Bank at their discretion until the sum of five hundred and forty pounds Virginia currency is vested therein which sum together with all profits accruing thereon I desire my executors to pay to said son upon his arriving to the age of twenty one year. But if such son should die before he attain the age of twenty one year then my will is that the said sum with all profits thereon accrued be by my executors equally divided between the children of Moses Hunter and Ann his present wife, and the children of my brother Robert Stephen share I share alike.

Now it is my will and I desire the residue of the debt due to me not herein disposed of together with the rent of my lands herein before devised to Adam Stephen Landridge to be paid out and not worked by their slaves be applied by my executors first to the payment of all my just debts and when they are fully paid off and satisfied then I direct that my executors do pay to Adam Stephen the second son of my brother Robt Stephen the sum of one hundred pounds Virginia currency partly and soon paid until the whole of the legacy herein before bequeathed is fully paid off and satisfied.

And as to my money arising from the sale of my mill and land here before devised to my executors to be sold as touching the disposition of the same it is my will and I direct that the interest or profits of the same be taken and applied in aid of the funds herein before appropriated for the payment of my debts and legacies & the principle sum after payment of my debts and legacies as aforesaid I give and bequeath to my brother Robt Stephen.

Item, I give and bequeath to each of my executors herein-after named the sum of two hundred pounds Pennsylvania currency as a compensation for the trouble imposed upon them by this my last will and Testament.

I further direct that the rents & profits of my old mill as also the rents of the town of Martinsburg for twenty years be vested by my executors in the Baltimore or Philadelphia Bank and that the interest growing out of the same may be considered as part of the fund aforesaid for the payment of legacies and the principle sum I give and bequeath to the children of Miss Hunter by a son his present wife and the children of my brother Robert Stephen share & share alike, when they may severally grow or continue their shares as to them shall seem best.

Item I give, devise & bequeath all the rest and residue of my estate of what nature or kind soever not herein before devised or disposed of to my brother Robt Stephen his heirs and assigns forever.

And lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint Robert Stephen Ephraim Grider and David Hunter joint executors of this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all other will by me heretofore and conferring this alone. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 5th day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one.

Signed, sealed, published & declared by the testator as his last will in presence of the words which I have where these appear to be an easement done before signing.

James Milson

W. K. Knight

James Lawson

Robert Cockburn

I Major general Adam Stephen of Martinsburg, Berkeley County and commonwealth of Virginia wishing to make some alteration or amendment to my last will and Testament which was executed and published by me the fifth day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety one in the presence of James Milson Robert W. Knight James Lawson and Robert Cockburn do make and publish this codicil for that purpose, by which I do declare it my will and desire that in addition to the executors mentioned in my said will, that my friend Moses Hunter be added and appointed and I do hereby constitute and appoint him as such one of my executors of my said last will and Testament, hereby directing that each of my executors as are entitled to a sum equal to two hundred as a legacy shall not receive the portions, which appear to be made for them as a legacy compensation for their trouble or any part thereof as aforesaid, but that each of my executors only shall receive two hundred pounds for their services as have no other provision made for them by my said will and that that cash and every part of my will of my will aforesaid not hereby altered remain and be considered as my last will and Testament, together with the supplement. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this day of June 1791.
