John Cotton & Son

Through the mercy of God I am in my reasonable years and am sensible of the uncertainty of life I desire to settle my affairs That I allow my lawful debts to be paid.
I also allow allow the Rent when we now live & the conveniences to be my Mother clear of my intercession as long as she lives after death I give it to my Brother Andrew if he returns from Georgia, I also give my Wife and Child to Andrew the rest of my property to my Mother The Negro Man Leason to be sold a slave as my Mother thinks best for her own uses her life Time then I allow what may be in his place to Brother Andrew.
