This was proved by the Oaths of James Ross and the affirmation of James Farrow (one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and bound to be sworn).

In the Name of God amen I John Cady of Kentucky and Deputee of Kentucky being weak in body but joyful in memory blessed be God thyself taking to mind the mortality of my body and feeling that I is approaching for all men once today so make an account that my time will end. I do declare that I do say principally and first of all I do
