Sam Francis

I Samuel Francis of Logan County Kentucky being as yet in debt but in perfect mind and memory do make this my last will and testament that is to say I bequeath the year of my existence to be and I give my body to any one of my heirs as he may think proper and as to my Real Estate I give both real and personal I dispose of them in the following manner to wit I give both my brother Jacob's heirs all the lands conveyed to me by Robert Caldwell except the section to the Town of Louisville. I further give to said Jacob's heirs my town lots in said Town. Also I give to the said Jacob's heirs all the additions to the land and all other lands and houses to be held in any manner whatsoever either by purchase or public or private Sale. Also all lands mine and husband's of all and every description also the highest and best at law to all my household & kitchen furniture of any description also all my Horses and Cattle and Hogs so and farming utensils and all my crop of any kind whatsoever also I give my share to said Real Estate this which and Lucinda in the State of Tennessee and all other species of property I hold in this State. But it is my sincere will that the said Jacob's heirs shall pay my said debt that is unpaid to Robert Caldwell
