I James Thomson being of lawful age and being at Thomas Thomson in his last will and a few days before her death and he being in his right mind and senses and being in conversation with him
 back and he observed that he did not like it and he had his name of and he said Thomson observed that his will and desire was that his wife should have all his property during her life and to lend her children as she saw cause and at her death the whole property to be divided together and on equal shares to be made between his children
