20th Sept. 24th 1820

In relation to my Guardianship for Charlotte Miller daughter of Thomas Miller I state that I filed a bill in the Leg^{al} County Court against A. Ballance the adm^r of Thomas Miller with a view to obtain from him the amount in his hands belonging to said Charlotte. The bill as a bill attesting that said Charlotte was dead and fraudulent and by some depositions proved the fact that said Charlotte was dead and that in 1818 was exhibited. I retained all out in my hands according to the decree. It has been lately established that said Charlotte was not dead and I have proceedings now pending to reverse the decree that former decree so that in truth I have no funds now in my hands the decree has been reversed by order of the Court
