To the Will of James Smith

In the Name of god Amen the thirteenth day of October in the year of our late one thousand seven hundred and ninety five I Charles Ravanough Sen^r of Madison County and State of Kentucky being of Perfect mind and Memory do hereby be to god for the same and calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and Ordain this my last will & Testament that is to say principally and first of all I give and bequeath my soul to god who give all as for my body

I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a Christian manner at the discretion of my executors Nothing doubting but at the general Resurrection I shall receive the same by the Almighty Power of god and as touching such Wollable Estates as I am possessed with, I give divide & dispose of the same in manner and form following that is to say first I devise my tract of land lying on the Kentucky River below the Mouth of Downing Creek be divided in Quantity and Quality Between James Mills Moore and Charles Ravanough Moore and Elizabeth Moore his two Children that the said James Mills Moore have one half of the said tract of land of the first choice having regard to Quantity and Quality as above mentioned and the said Charles and Elizabeth his Children the other half of the said tract of land provided further that if the said land or any part of it should be lost by a fire claim or other means the loss shall not fall on the remaining part of the Estate. However if a loss should take place of a part of the land it shall be equally proportioned Between said Moore and his two Children according to the Quantity first given. Item Whereas I have a Loan sent depending for a certain Tract of land and the rents thereof in Culpeper County and State of Virginia which if I should gain I devise my Executors William & Charles Ravanough and Peter Wood or whoever goes into Transact the same After being paid for their Trouble out of what is Received shall deliver the Balance with all the rest of my Estate into the hands of my wife Amy Ravanough during her life then the whole of the Estate at her death to be equally divided Between my five Children viz, Mary William, Charles, Joel & and Sarah and I give and bequeath to the heirs of my eldest son William
