In the of god aimed Joshua Adams of the County of Madison and State of Kentucky, being very sick and weak in a perfect health of body, but a and of perfect mind and memory thanks be given unto god calling unto mind the Mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and Ordain this my last will and Testament that is to say principally and first of all I give and Recommend my soul unto the hands of almighty god, that governs it, and my body I Recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian Burial at the Discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but at the general Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of god as touching such worldly Estate wherewith it hath pleased god to bless me in this life I give devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form, First I give and bequeath to Sarah my dearly beloved wife all my property during her widowhood or while the youngest child comes of age, excepting one feather bed which I give to my dearly beloved Daughter Betty, and excepting enough to pay all my Just Debts at the expiration when the youngest child becomes of age, then to be equally Divided, the sum that is now owing is not to come under the notice of the executors but is for the use of my family and I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and Disannul all and every other former Testament Will, legacy bequests and executors by me in any ways before named written and bequeathed Ratifying and Confirming this and no other to be my last will and Testament, In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 27 day of August 1798
