

The Noncupative Will of Angel Council committed the writing the 27th day of August 1805 by Stephen Ham and James Hemming to wit. first he left his say man to his wife Matthy Council the land he lived on he left her during her life and after his Debt is paid he leaves her any thing else that he possessed for her Support and Satisfaction and raising his Children except three cotts that he has given viz. One to his Daughter Polly one to his son William and one to his Daughter Betsy his Will was that they should keep them

Stephen Ham
James Hemming

Madison Co.

This day Stephen Ham and James Hemming personally came before me a Justice of the peace for said County and made oath that were personally present and heard Angel Council Acknowledge the within Will to be his last Will and Testament, which they have herein committed to writing given under my hand the 27th day of August 1805

Richard J. Callaway

At a Court held for Madison County on Monday the 1st day of October 1805

The Noncupative Will of Angel Council Decand was proved by the oath of Stephen Ham and James Hemming Witnesses thereto and Ordered to be Recorded

Attest Will J. J. J. C.

An Inventory of the Estate of Allen Parks Decand

One Small Man...	6	0	0
One Small bell	5	12	0
One Brown filly	12	"	"
One black Horse	13	10	"
In Barn at 12/1	6	"	"
Two Small Cows	1	4	"
Eight Cows	4	"	"
One Cow and calf	2	2	"
One Cow	2	8	"
One Bull	0	2	0
One loom	1	16	"
One Side Saddle	0	10	6
One plow and Jacking	1	5	"
One Star	2	"	"
One Oven and pot hooks	"	12	"
One axe	"	7	0
To Fork	"	13	6
One Pot and hooks	"	13	0
One pair of drawing Chains	"	9	"
One Gun	2	2	"
One Hoe	1	10	"
Pecker	1	2	"
Two wain	"	10	"
One Saw	"	3	"
Four forks	"	6	"
To Nephew	"	12	"
To one Springing Wheel	"	12	"
To Chany	"	6	"
One pair of Cotton Candy	"	1	"
One log claim	"	7	0
It is our opinion that the above dogs that we have at hand is worth $2.15.0

3 12 17