At a Court held for Madison County on Monday the 2^d day of January 1807, This Inventory & appraisement of the Estate of Maryann Edell deceased was returned & Grooved to be Recorded Attest Will Irvine one 387 In the name of God Amen I the said Maryann of Madison County in the State of Kentucky being sick and weak but of sound mind and memory thanks be to god abundantly therefore calling to mind the uncertainty of this life and that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament in the following manner, I first and principally I recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it me, and my body to the Earth to be buried in a decent and Christian like manner at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named. And as to that worldly Estate I have pleased God to bless me with I dispose of in the following manner Wiz: I give and bequeath that all my last debts and funeral expences be first paid

Then I give unto my dearly beloved wife Maryann Crooke the plantation I now dwell containing one hundred acres by deed to the same more or less and the said land to be by her freely enjoyed and possessed during her being a Widow, and if she marry or at her death my desire is that the said tract of land be equally divided between my two eldest sons in quantity and quality, namely Zachariah Crooke and Rezekiah Crooke to remain to them and their heirs forever also I give and bequeath unto my dearly beloved wife Maryann Crooke one negro girl that I have a bond for upon the same Her death
