Elijah Snapp being poorly in body but being in perfect senses and sound mind after consulting my wife to have not knowing when it may please my Lord and Master Jesus Christ to call me from this world after my body being committed to the dust and all my just debts being paid I will and bequeath unto my son James Snapp one horse saddle and bridle worth fifty dollars fifteen dollars for him to buy clothing the one part of the land I bought from his sister and brother Re. Howard also the land I bought of Squating Howard 123 to be equally divided between William and Thomas Snapp at the death of my wife Patsy Snapp I will and bequeath unto my wife Patsy Snapp the whole of my personal estate to dispose of as she thinks proper at her death further more I do appoint James Dejeant for my Executor and my wife as co-executor in the disposal of my estate in case of my my younger daughter's marriage and leaving their mother by her consent for her to give them a box or anything that she soon conveniently spare as witness my hand and seal this 15th
