heirs forever. Item Immediately after the death of my beloved wife it is my request that my executor cause all the property of every description remaining of the estate herein bequeathed to my beloved wife together with the increase and profits thereof except the land to be sold in the way which they conceive most productive and as soon thereafter as practicable pay to each of my daughters or their legal representatives out of the proceeds thereof the sum of one thousand dollars should the said proceeds be sufficient to make such payment. But should it be insufficient divide the same equally between my four said daughters or their legal representatives and in case there remains a surplus after paying to my daughters the sum of one thousand dollars each I desire that said surplus be equally divided between my six children herein named or their legal representatives. If my son Clifton Rodes should die before he arrives at the age of twenty one years with having lawful issue it is my will that the estate herein bequeathed to him be sold by my executor and the proceeds thereof equally divided between my other children herein named or their legal representatives. It is my will and desire that the sale of my slaves herein required to be made be confined to my own children or their legal representatives.
The Tract of land which I hold whereon John Jarman now lives should said Jarman not pay the money therefor owing to the debtors existing between us it is my will and desire that my executor sell said land and dispose of the proceeds thereof as is herein directed of money to be paid. It is my will and desire that my estate shall not be sold appraised according to law but that my executor as soon as convenient after my death cause an Inventory of my effects and real appraised to be made out in the presence of William Goodloe and a friend 49th one copy thereof in his hands for safe keeping. It is my sincere wish and desire that there shall be no dispute arise in the execution of my will or in the due distribution of my estate but in case there should any arise it is my will and desire that the decision of William Goodloe and Archibald Woods or either of them shall settle the same finally. Lastly I hereby nominate and appoint my Son, William Rodes and Mallory Easton Executors of this my last will and Testament. Pursuant to an order from the Madison County Court made at their December Term 1818, appointing us Commissioners to divide the slaves of Joseph Ryland deceased between the heirs of said Decedent, we convened at the dwelling house of Joseph Barnett, and being first sworn by Archibald Woods Esq. and having said slaves brought before us and having evaluated them, we divided them into seven lots agreeable to the number of said Decedent's heirs. There being twelve slaves in all, valued to $6800 which we divided into seven parts to be equal to $900 and having numbered the lots of slaves and balloted for each of the heirs to make the following report of each ones dividend.

To Parker & Goddard and Catharine his wife late Catharine Ryland, ~~is~~ allotted two of the slaves (wret), Sylvia and Henry, valued to $1000.

To John F. Ryland is allotted two slaves Polly and Nelson, valued to $1000. To Elizabeth Ryland is allotted two slaves Samuel and a child called a merica valued to $700, and to be paid in addition $100. from John F. Ryland, and $100. by said John F. Ryland, Guardian to Edwin Ryland, to make said Elizabeth's lot of slaves equal to the average amount of each here.

To Edwin Ryland is allotted one slave called Quin's field valued to $1000.

To Joannah Ryland is allotted one man slave called James valued to $750, and $100. to be paid her by Parker & Goddard and Catharine his wife.

and $50. to be paid by Joseph Barnett Guardian to Nancy Ryland to make said Joannah's Division equal with the average to each here.

To James Ryland is allotted three slaves viz. Rebecca and her child and a small boy called Moses valued to $700.

To Nancy Ryland is allotted ~~three~~ ^{two} slaves called Sotensen and Menah valued to $850.
