In the name of God Amen I Andrew Bogie of the County of Madison and State of Kentucky being in good health of body and of sound disposing mind do make and ordain this as my last will and testament in the manner and form following to wit 1st After my decease I wish my executors hereafter to be named to pay all my just debts and Funeral Expenses—2nd I give and bequeath to my daughter Isabella Taylor one thousand dollars in common current money of Kentucky—3rd I give and bequeath to my daughter Fanny Bartleson one thousand dollars in common current money of Kentucky—4th It is my will and desire that whereas my brother James Bogie and myself are in partnership in the great saw and horse mills that he should have one third part of the profits and interest of said Mills according to a specific bond of mine held by said James Bogie and it is to be understood that this clause of my will is only to seem to him the same immediate and privilege that the said bond was intended to do and no more.
It is further to be understood that the said James Bogie is to have one third part of the Expenses of all necessary repairs of the said mills with the said saw and horse mills with his compliance with the above provisions and also provided that he nor his heirs shall never sell the above interest in said mills to any person or persons except to my son James Bogie or James
