

of full age & my will and desire is that my last made & said legacy to my dearest child here to be the same to either to them or to their heirs if he can get any portion to provide for the family and if not to a sister or a son and my heirs to support him if he should not be able to support himself.

My will is that my wife Franky is to live on the place I now live on and raise my family in the same and fear of God at her discretion so long as she can and my desire to have the use of all my estate (not otherwise disposed of both real and personal) after having the use as directed by my Executors, but if it should so happen that my wife Franky should marry again then my estate and to have to much only as the last of my said child say should be made to make in either case if she should either die or marry the residue of my estate I wish to be equally divided between all my children both by my first wife and last that I mean real and personal -

My will and desire is that my Executors make sale of all my Personal Estate except so much as they shall think necessary for my wife to keep her and raise my children. My wish and desire is that my Wagon & Team be left with my son Henry after being first mentioned in order to help my wife raise my children and when my Executors shall think fit then sell said Wagon and Team and not until then.

In fact I wish it remarked that my Executors shall have collected all debts due me and pay all my debts & do every thing just and right agreeable to the above request of mine. Lastly I do hereby appoint my friends William Williams & William Stand my Executors hoping they will carry this my last will into effect.
