 out of which I have and do allow to said widow two-thirds her dower and third part of said slave the following being to wit Negro Woman Bill and her daughter Eliza and her son Isaac Negro Woman Riptell and Negro boy Fountain. The claim in saying have found it very difficult if not absolutely impracticable to allow to the widow of her dower in the slave and third an also her value and at the same time give her what would be summed over third of the annual value of the slave. And in the allotment which they have made as a provision in the estimate which they have put upon the absolute value of the slave they have not given the widow one third part by $50 but in the estimate which they have put upon the annual value of the slave the part allotted to the widow as one and third part by $6.00
