And the under named surveying being called upon by Patton's Purchase and of the Executor to the last will and testament of William Patton deceased to divide, settle and appraise the value of the several lots of the above tract of land, but on the premises and caused the same to be run and divided into the true quantity we have proceeded to divide the same in the most equitable manner that the tract would admit of to the best of our judgement in the following manner: lot 107 containing 100 acres of land Patton's Purchase being divided by the lot 103 survey per acre 100 containing 40 acres
