Monday the 23^d day of February 1829. this Last Will of the estate of Parker Pearson dec'd was returned and ordered to be recorded and the same has been done accordingly. Attest David Brown Clerk

I Enock Drutson of Madison County, Stry. of Sound and disposing (Mind) that I do hereby do ordain, constitute and make this my last Will and Testament hereby giving all others by me made heretofore (made) Then I do by my Will and devise that my personal estate Jem and Milson be sold and the proceeds applied in paying off my just debts, the balance of my negroes I wish my wife to have during her lifetime or till her death which ever may first happen.
The Plantation on which I now live and my separate tract at some time sold, whenever my Executors may think proper for the best possible price the proceeds arising therefrom to be laid in land elsewhere more suitable for my wife and the raising my children which I wish my wife to have the exclusive right and possession of during her life or till her death which ever may first happen. In case my wife should marry so in my Will and devise in that case that she gets her one third part of my estate in conformity to the law on that subject regulating Wills, it is my desire that my children be educated.
Lastly I constitute and appoint my wife Edith Drutson and John White Esq. my Executrix and Executor to this my last Will and Testament as Witness my hand and Seal this 23^d day of January 1829. in Drutson
