 This it appears that there is no apportioning the hand of John Rineaid and that he has over paid what he has received & that the whole appts not divided are in the hands of Margaret Garrison

It was continued before your Commission that the admrs agreed to be charged with the debts of the said John Garrison deceased his executors. This claim has not been allowed because admission is not made that the contract of said John Rineaid was because it appears that the widow doer had not been assigned her & for that reason she was entitled to the plant then rents for the term - There were also claims for 100 to him for a slave which said Garrison owned & which the widow kept this is not allowed because the widow may be entitled to doer in said slave and because she is now dead & the same persons heir her estate that do her husband and it appears they will get the same share the one way as the other & also appears that Rineaid has not taken any contract over said slave -
