

56) and sayeth that in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty he made an entry for Henry Lee for seven hundred and fifty acres that this is the creek intended and called for in the entry and that he forbore to name it as it was called by different names but endeavored to describe it by a war road that crossed the north fork of Licking Just below the mouth of the ~~creek~~ and being called upon when the survey was about to be made the deponent showed this as the creek the entry was made on and further saith not

Teste
John Wilson }
Geo. Machir }

Richard Masterson

The deposition of Francis McBoimet taken on the same occasion and at the same time and place this deponent being sworn deposeth and saith that he helped to carry the chain when

257) this survey was made and the survey was begun at the white oak tree now shown which was marked with the letters H. & farther saith not

Teste
John Wilson

Geo. Machir

Francis McBoimet

The Deposition of Henry Lee taken on the same occasion at the same time and place This deponent being sworn deposeth and saith that as deputy surveyor to Thomas Marshall Senr. surveyor of Fayette County he made the above mentioned survey and was shown the mouth of this creek by Richard Masterson a witness sworn on this occasion as the one intended and called for in the entry he set his compass at the mouth and pursued the general course thereof through the bottoms & directed his chain men to keep an account of the distances which from time to time he took down together with

56) and sayeth that in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty he made an entry for Henry Lee for seven hundred and fifty acres that this is the creek intended and called for in the entry and that he forbore to name it as it was called by different names but endeavored to describe it by a war road that crossed the north fork of Licking Just below the mouth of the ~~creek~~ and being called upon when the survey was about to be made the deponent showed this as the creek the entry was made on and further saith not

Teste
John Wilson }
Geo. Machir }

Richard Masterson

The deposition of Francis McBoimet taken on the same occasion and at the same time and place this deponent being sworn deposeth and saith that he helped to carry the chain when

257) this survey was made and the survey was begun at the white oak tree now shown which was marked with the letters H. & farther saith not

Teste
John Wilson

Geo. Machir

Francis McBoimet

The Deposition of Henry Lee taken on the same occasion at the same time and place This deponent being sworn deposeth and saith that as deputy surveyor to Thomas Marshall Senr. surveyor of Fayette County he made the above mentioned survey and was shown the mouth of this creek by Richard Masterson a witness sworn on this occasion as the one intended and called for in the entry he set his compass at the mouth and pursued the general course thereof through the bottoms & directed his chain men to keep an account of the distances which from time to time he took down together with

56) and sayeth that in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty he made an entry for Henry Lee for seven hundred and fifty acres that this is the creek intended and called for in the entry and that he forbore to name it as it was called by different names but endeavored to describe it by a war road that crossed the north fork of Licking Just below the mouth of the ~~creek~~ and being called upon when the survey was about to be made the deponent showed this as the creek the entry was made on and further saith not

Teste
John Wilson }
Geo. Machir }

The deposition of Francis McBoimet taken on the same occasion and at the same time and place this deponent being sworn deposeth and saith that he helped to carry the chain when

257) this survey was made and the survey was begun at the white oak tree now shown which was marked with the letters H. & farther saith not

Teste
John Wilson

Geo. Machir

Francis McBoimet

The Deposition of Henry Lee taken on the same occasion at the same time and place This deponent being sworn deposeth and saith that as deputy surveyor to Thomas Marshall Senr. surveyor of Fayette County he made the above mentioned survey and was shown the mouth of this creek by Richard Masterson a witness sworn on this occasion as the one intended and called for in the entry he set his compass at the mouth and pursued the general course thereof through the bottoms & directed his chain men to keep an account of the distances which from time to time he took down together with