I Hunt and John Hunt on or about the day of July in the year 1803 called upon in the Subscribers to observe and take notice that it was his will and desire that Matthew Rogers Libin Smith of Mason County should have possess and enjoy all his Estate which he the said John Hunt should see in any manner proposed of to him the said Matthew Rogers his heirs and assigns forever alleging that he the said John Hunt had not any relatives in America and that if he had he did not feel any inclination that they or any of them should have any of his Estate as they had not treated him the said John Hunt in a friendly manner, that we believe the said Hunt was in his perfect senses at the time of making and declaring his will and desire in manner aforesaid, Given under our hands and seals as the forsooth and substance in full of the Non-occupative will of John Hunt this 12th day of December 1803
