 will

The last Will and Testament of John Miles of Harrodsburg Kentucky First. The Testator being sick but of full mind and memory do give and bequeath to my wife Ann Miles four of my negroes, Viz, her choice that I own except Nathan also the house and all the live on with eight acres of land adjoining the lane, all my household and kitchen furniture, my horse named Monkey, the black Shark filley, two cow halves, six ewe and two acres of wood land adjoining the Town of Harrodsburg all of which I give her during her natural life unless she should marry again and in that case my Will is that she then no longer hold or enjoy any of my estate except a negro girl named Bobbett which in case of her marrying again she is to receive, hold & enjoy during her lifetime.

I give to my Daughter Jane Pittsott one cow half.

I give and bequeath to my son James Miles all the estate herein given to her mother to be by him received at the power that her right thereto ceases to be by him and his Heirs held and enjoyed forever. I also give and bequeath to my son James all the residue of my estate of every kind whatever to him & his Heirs forever, but should my son James depart this life without a Will and without a child it is my Will that the whole of the estate herein given him be equally divided between my daughter Jane Pittsott and the children of my wife.

I hereby nominate & appoint my wife Ann and my son James Executors of this my last Will and Testament. In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 24 day of April 1805
