Will

I James Harlan of Norfolk weak of body But of sound mind and memory do hereby Make this my last will and testament revoking all others — Principally and first Give my Soul to Almighty God who gave it me and my Body to the earth to be buried in a decent manner at the discretion of my friends my estate I divide in the following manner I first direct direct that my Just debts and funeral expenses be paid I then give and bequeath to my dearly and beloved wife Sarah Harlan during her life 178 acres of land including including the mansion House and disignate on the connected plat by its number 4. Also the following Negroes (cons) Betty and all her children Fanny and her ^{youngst} children Bucken and Virgin all my Household and Kitchen furniture together with six horses 10 cows five steers 30 sheep and 40 Hogs to be for behoof of my stock and the one third of the money that may be due to me from the executors of the late George Colwell Dead the slaves and

Personal estate divided to her disposal by will or other wise and at any time —

2nd I give and bequeath to my daughter Beattell Harlan three thousand dollars to be paid to her with interest when she marries or at the age of twenty one years the interest to commence and year of the sale of my personal Estate —

3^d I give and bequeath to my son in law William Harlan all that part of tract of land in Christian county on which he resides that was paid for by me also Thirteen Hundred and ninety ^{one} dollars

Being the amount of my account against him for two negroes a mare leather cash &c paid at sundry times also $70 in the hands of Mathew Harlan $18 in the hands of George Harlan $150 in the paid by me to William Harlan for Mathew Harlan & $150 in cash

4th I give and bequeath to my son George Harlan seven hundred and thirty four dollars and sixty one cents being the amount of my account against him and five hundred dollars —

It is my will and that my lands be distributed amongst my seven sons agreeable to a Plat and explication signed by me and dated this day To wit Silas George Elgah Sime John James and Davis each agreeable to his number and at the price therein stated so as to make each equal ~~there~~ whose lots amount to more than the average price to pay to those whose lots amounts to less but it is to be observed that the lots designated to my son

Davis is to belong to my wife during her natural life & no longer which last is estimated with the incumbrance the plat a been mentioned to be incorporated with & made a part of my will

The residue & remainder of my estate real & personal to be sold & equally divided between my six following children to wit
Silas Elijah John James and Davis

But it is to be observed that silas has already received of me Eleven hundred and ninety eight dollars and Elijah nine hundred and ninety two dollars the divided to be made so as to make each one of my last mentioned six children part equal taking into consideration the two last mentioned sums Rectifying and confirming this as my last ~~deeds~~ will and Testament and revoking all others
