Thompson's account of George C. Thompson Guardian of Elizabeth Thompson Joseph & Thompson & Mary C. Thompson Infant heirs of Joseph Thompson Decd. The Guardian begs leave to Guarantee that since the sale of his account remained lost. a/c To let there has been no change in the property of his three Married with noticing there has been no division of the Estate Except that Commissioners appointed by the Court have proceeded to attach in part to Thomas B. Hood who intermarries with the son of Thompson one of the heirs of her share The Report of these Commissioners it is presumed has been submitted

138 To the Court - The Guardian has continued for the last year the same agreement with the mother in what of his three wards which he mentioned in detail in his account a year since. He has no doubt that they have been provided for in this way much better and more profitably than he could have done by applying to the use of them separately their respective portions of the Estate of said deceased. On the 2^d day of July last Eliza C. Thompson one of the wards intermarried with Peter John Adamson. Up to that day this account is intended to work so far as it relates to the Interest of Eliza - The which is respectfully submitted to the Court - 3^d Dec. 1818 -
