In the name of God Amen. I Thomas James Mannion of Montgomery County, being of perfect mind and memory, testifying to mind the Mortality of human life, and knowing I am appointed unto all men once to die, to make and declare my last will and Testament. That is to say, first of all, I recommend my soul to God almighty who gave it, and my body to the Earth, to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the direction of my Executors, and as touching such worldly property as he hath pleased God to give me withal. I dispose of in the following manner. First, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Nancy Mannion the land plantation and the ~~pp~~ ^{part} acres of Land, whereon I now live; also ~~hab~~ ^{house} and ~~g~~ ^{garden}, and all the to the same of my Estate consisting of house hold furniture Books &c. - During her widowhood, and at her death or marriage to be equally divided among my five youngest Children, about, Polly Murray, Partheny, Abigail, and baby Roder Mannions - Secondly and lastly, I appoint my beloved wife Nancy Mannion and William Dear, Executors of this my last will and Testament signed, sealed and acknowledged in presence of as want to an order from the Clerk of the Montgomery County, September 1811 to us directed, we John De mott, John Gore, and John Coon, being called, on the 27th day of April 1812 and after being put sworn have proceeded to examine and settle all accounts produced to us by the administrators of James ~~De mott~~ ^{Chapman} De mott.

And we find that is due from said deceased Estate to Oliver ~~De mott~~ ^{Chapman} administrators of said Estate five hundred and thirty dollars and one penny.
