Rebecca, one negro boy, Dave. I, Charles, do give and bequeath to my daughter Lizer one negro boy named Simon. I, Charles, do give and bequeath to my son, Charles Lewis, one negro girl named Jude.
I, Charles, do desire to give to my three youngest children, Elizabeth Lewis, William Lewis, and Mary Lewis, one negro piece provided the old wench shall bear as many. If not this increase I desire the said three children to be made up as much as will make them equal with the others above mentioned at the death of my wife. I, Charles, do give and bequeath to my wife, Elizabeth Lewis, her life three negroes, Peter, Mager, and Grace with all my lands, stock and household furniture, then the balance after make the three children above mentioned equal with the rest the balance to be equal divided amongst the hole at the death of my wife, Elizabeth Lewis, I, Charles Lewis, do beg and desire that my wife, Elizabeth Lewis, James Lewis, and Isaac Pennington shall stand as guardians, this being my last will and testament signed, sealed in the presents of us. Nov. 1, 1806.
