^{Daniel}
David Rhoads Will.

I the name of God amen.
October 3th One thousand eight hundred and eleven. I David Rhoads of Nox County Indiana Territory, being of perfect health and sound in memory do make this my last will and testament, in manner and form as following & (to wit) I allow that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid and full satisfied by my executors. I give and bequeath to my wife Polly, my second wife I now live with eighty acres of land with the improvements that I now live on during her life, then the said land and premises is to descend to my son Daniel that I now have with my said wife - Also I give to my son John Eighty acres of Land adjoining the aforesaid eighty acres on the East-side. I also unto my said beloved wife two ~~beds~~ beds together with the shelf ware, wood ware and pot mettle, the choice of two cows, and one horse creature with the one she owned when married to me, together with four breeding sows - And also I give unto my sons David and Henry one hundred and eighty acres of land lying on the South side of the above mentioned land to be divided for quantity and quality. David is to have his part adjoining his step-mother's & John's tracts. - I also give unto David and Henry two horse colts which I now own - I further give and Bequeath unto my sons James and Lew. all my stock and bedding and farming utensils that I have to be valued by two men if not agreed upon by my heirs before mentioned to an equal proportion with the land before mentioned, rating the land at two dollars per acre - And I also give unto my son William one dollar current money. I also give unto my son Ryla a certain tract of land lying on Lipsis, adjoining Crumpackers on the N^o East side in the County of Muhlenberg and State of Kentucky I authorize my executors to make the said Ryla a title agreeable to a bond that I give in my lifetime to my wife Polly which she took when she left me, for her dower her lifetime - I do constitute and ordain my beloved wife and my faithful friend Solomon Rhoads to be Executor of this my last will and testament, disannulling all wills and testaments, by me made prior to these presents. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and the day and year above written.
