Will

In the name of God Amen.
I, Elijah Wilson, of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and county of Muhlenberg being weak in body, but of sound mind & memory & calling to mind that it is appointed for all mankind once to die do make and ordain this my last will and testament as follows: (First) First of all I request that my executors hereafter named pay all my just debts, secondly I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Elizabeth Wilson, all my property both real & personal during her widowhood and provided she never marries during her life time for the support of her & my three children, Esther, Jeremiah & Elizabeth, and should my wife think proper to marry my will is that she have her thirds of my personal property to her and her heirs forever and in case of her marriage or otherwise after death I give and bequeath to my son Jeremiah the tract of land whereon I now live on the waters of Pond Creek, Muhlenberg County containing one hundred and fifty acres to him and his heirs forever. It is also my will that my executors dispose of a tract of land lying on Long Creek that I purchased of Ephiah Clevenger in such way as they may think proper and the proceeds to be equally divided between my wife and daughters and the ballance of my property after my wife's thirds are taken out in case of her marriage or in case she should not marry after her death my will is that it be equally divided between my two daughters Esther & Elizabeth and it is my will also that should either of my children before named die without lawful issue that what is hereby willed to the one that may so decease be divided and given to the survivors or survivor as the case may be to them and their heirs forever, but should my executors think it advisable with the consent of my beloved wife to keep the tract of land purchased from Clevenger as aforesaid and sell and dispose of other property in lieu thereof it is my will that the said tract of land be equally divided between my beloved wife and my two daughters, Esther & Elizabeth to them and their heirs forever and it is my wish that it be clearly understood that if either of my daughters die before they come of age or marry that the surviving sister have the property hereby willed to them. I appoint Jeremiah Langley and Thomas Salberry my executors to the my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills heretofore by me made and ratifying this & no other to be my last will and testament in testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 22nd day of February in the year of one thousand eight hundred and twelve.
