Will.

In the name of God Amen. I, John Bird of the state of Kentucky and county of Muhlenberg being weak in body but of perfect mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament. And as to my worldly effects I give and devise in the following manner That is to say.

Item 1st. My will and desire that all my just debts be paid.

Item 2nd. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Rebecca, my negro man Curt and all my household and kitchen furniture for and during her natural lifetime.

Item 3rd. I give and bequeath to my three daughters Polly, Anne & Sally, my negro woman named Phibe and her two children Philes and Toney to them and their heirs forever.

Item 4th. I leave to my two sons John and Nathan the tract of land where I now live containing two hundred acres to be equally divided between them, to them and their heirs forever. Likewise my negro girl Aggy to be equally divided between them by my executors my will is that my stock & farming utensils be kept together for the support of my wife and family. It is also my will that my lots in Lewisberg and such property as my executors may think can be spared best without injuring my family (should it be thought necessary by them) as will be sufficient to paying just debts until my youngest child comes of age and during my wife's widowhood it is my will that my family reside on the farm that I now live on.

 I do by these presents appoint my beloved wife, Rebecca, and Leroy Jackson executors of this my last will and testament hereby ratifying and confirming this to be my last will and testament revoking all other wills by me made In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 22nd day of June 1808.

October 15th 1808

Will.

In the name of God Amen
 I, George Naught, being in a low state of health, but in my perfect mind and memory and knowing that it is ordained for all men to die do make this my last will and testament.

In the first place I appoint and constitute Jesse Reno my lawful executor.
 Secondly I desire that all my goods and chattles shall be sold and my just debts paid out of the amount thereof.

Thirdly. I desire that the remainder of my estate after my debts are paid shall be equally divided among my children namely, Mary McCaulis, William Naught, Elizabeth McGillin, George Naught, Isaac Naught, Sally Naught, Ruth Naught, James Naught.

Fourthly. I give and bequeath unto Mary and Thomas five shillings

Item I further desire that a certain sorrel horse that I purchased of David Thomas shall be sold if the sd. Thomas does not pay the required sum mentioned in the bill of sale on the day specified in the bill of sale. Item I further desire that Jesse Reno shall take all my property in possession immediately after my death & proceed to act as this my last will directs.
