I give and devise to my two sons Durand and James all my lands and real estate whatever. provided however that my executors shall have the direction custody and management of the said estate and the disposal of the profits thereof until my son James shall arrive at the age of twenty one years at which time it is my will that my said lands and real estate be equally divided between my said two sons Durand and James to hold to them and their heirs forever. It is my will that my stock of horse, cattle and hogs be kept on my farm for the support of my two sons Durand and James at the discretion of my executors. But when my son Durand arrives to the age of twenty one years my will is that he have a horse valued to him by my executors and all the remainder of my aforesaid personal property I desire may be equally divided between my two sons Durand and James when my said son James arrives at the age of twenty one years. I give and bequeath to my son James and his heirs forever a negro boy named Ben provided nevertheless and it is my will that my friend Charles Fox King shall have the use and possession of the said boy Ben for his own use until my said son James arrives at the age of twenty one years: I give and devise all my other negroes to my two sons, Durand and James provided however that my executors shall have the direction and management of the said negroes until my said son James shall arrive at the age of twenty one years at which time it is my desire that my said negroes shall be equally divided between my said sons, Durand and James to hold to them and their heirs forever. It is my will that after the death of my wife all the remainder of my property whatever both real and personal be equally divided between my two sons Durand and James and their heirs or so soon as my son James comes to the age of twenty one years until which time it is my will that my executors shall have the direction of it. It is my will and desire that my friend Charles Fox King have as much corn and fock from my farm every year as will be sufficient to support himself, my son James and my negro boy Ben, until my son James shall arrive to the age of twenty one years. I desire that my son Cansel may have the use of the land he now lives on during the time he stays thereon. It is my will and desire that if either of my said sons, Durand or James should die before he comes to the age of twenty one years during the life of the other the survivor shall have the whole of the said estate and property which I have herein before willed to be equally divided between them to him and his heirs. If both of my said sons Durand and James should die without issue then it is my will and desire that the said estate and property which I have herein before devised to them shall go to my friend Charles Fox King and his heirs forever. It is my will that so much of my stock be sold by my executors as shall be sufficient to defray my funeral charges and expences and also so much as shall be necessary for the use and support of my wife and sons Durand and James. It is my desire that my two sons Durand and James shall be educated under the direction of my friend Charles Fox King as he may think proper and in case of his death then it is my will that my other executors shall have the direction and superintendance of their education. I do constitute and appoint my friends, Charles Fox King, Charles Lewis and Henry Davidge
