

God to bless me I do hereby will and bequeath them in the following manner to be disposed of and in the first place I recommend my soul into the hand of God who gave it, and my body to be buried in decent Christian burial hoping at the general resurrection to be received into union again. Item to my dear beloved wife Eliza I will and bequeath the eighty acres of land on which I now live with all the stock household furniture and farming utensils thereunto belonging during her natural life and at her death to be disposed of as shall be directed hereafter. Item to my three daughters Sarah, Letitia and Alice I bequeath ten pounds a piece to be paid out of my estate as I shall hereafter direct. Item to my son Edward one hundred acres of land whereon he now lives. Item to my son John one hundred acres of land whereon he now lives. Item to my sons John and Samuel as I have given them ^{share of my} ~~an~~ ^{estate} in land previous to this my will I allow each of them one dollar out of my estate as shall be paid as hereafter directed. Item to my sons John and Joseph I will and bequeath three hundred and fifty acres of land on short branch a branch of Rough branch which I purchased from Abraham Kines and Philip Phillips. Item of the devise of my wife Alice I bequeath the eighty acres of land on which I now live to my sons Edward and John to be equally divided between them the younger and equal equal share of the property I have before mentioned and hereby promise to my son Samuel for it. and I do hereby appoint my sons Edward and John my Executors to this my last will and Testament and I do hereby recommend and revoke all former wills by me devised or made. Witness my hand I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twelfth day of August in the year of our Lord 1806. John Crombie in the presence of us who in the presence of each other do witness the same John Hunter, Samuel Crombie, John Crombie

At a County Court held for Stirling County, on Monday the fourth day of December 1807

This last will and Testament of John Crombie deceased was proved by the oaths of John Hunter Samuel Crombie and John Crombie subscribing Witnesses thereof and sworn to by Edward Crombie and John Crombie the Executors thereof named and ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of the said Executors the Court is granted them for allowing probate thereof and due fees they having given bond with Robert Hunter and William Stone their sureties in the penalty of five hundred pounds conditioned as the Law directs. Test Robert Hunter &c

E?

In the name of God Amen. I John Hunter of the County of Stirling and State of Kentucky being very sick and weak of body at present but of perfect sound mind and calling to mind that it is now appointed for all the living to die do make and ordain this my last will and Testament revoking hereby all others by me formerly made Now it is my will and desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of my estate by my Executors hereafter named. Now I give and bequeath to my loving son William Minor my tract of land whereon I now live with all its appurtenances, also my two breeding meadows, one is by name called and known by the name of Jolly and the other called and known by the name of Henry also two cows and calves and one steer, yearling also all the farming utensils of what kind soever except one bar ^{share} plow. also one half of all my kitchen furniture. also one half my earthen ware, not hereafter, not hereafter specially bequeathed under the special conditions hereafter mentioned Now I give and bequeath to my loving daughter Mary Minor my dozen green egg^s plates one pitcher, one chancy tin pot one set of cups and saucers of chancy, one slop bowl, one set of silver Tea spoons marked with the initials of my name, one copper tin kettle one dressing glass waiter and chamber, looking glass, also one barrel wheel commonly called hors. also my bureau and one half the powder now in my popguns, also a full exoneration from all debts and acc^t due from her my s^d daughter to me. Also I bequeath to her my s^d daughter the two first choices of my earthen dishes and one hoop. Now I give and bequeath to my loving son Nicholas Minor one bay horse colt called and known by the name

name of Partridge also one patch box with the finest steel one blue and white yarn covered one linen blanket and linen beds quilt one calico bed quilt one pair of sheets one bolster and two pillows, one basket one saw and pike and one high top that came of a one I purchased of Anthony Groggensen. Also one earthen plow, also one half of all my earthen ware, not hereafter specially bequeathed. Now I give and bequeath to my loving son John Minor one grey mare colt called and known by the name of Lightfoot, one feather bed and bolster one coverlet of black and blue yarn one pair of sheets one linen bed quilt, one cotton bed quilt and one bolster also do fully exonerate him my s^d son from all debt and acc^t due from him to me. Now I give and bequeath to my loving son George Minor one feather bed and bolster two yards coverlet one pair of flannel blankets. One cotton counterpane and one pair of sheets. Also do fully exonerate him my s^d son from all debts and acc^t due from him to me. Now I give and bequeath to my loving son my loving son William Minor all the residue of my estate of what kind soever except the negroes trust Thomas Horvater & Frank and her increase. Now it is my will and desire and I do hereby direct that my son William Minor pay out of the estate hereafter bequeathed to him to my daughter Mary Minor one hundred dollars in specie on or before her separation of twelve months from this date also forty pounds to my loving son George Minor in like money at his arriving at the age of twenty one

one year allow a good house to be worth one hundred dollars together with a good new saddle and bridle at his arriving at the above age. Then it is my will and desire that my part of the money due me as Administratrix of Spencer Minor dec.^d be apply^d to the education of my two young sons John and Spencer Minor at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named. Then it is my will and desire that my son William Minor should take upon himself the guardianship of my s^{ons} John and Spencer Minor and lastly I do appoint him my loving son William Minor my whole and sole Executor of this my last will and Testament. In Testimony of which I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 31 day of July in the year of our Lord 1801.

Signed and acknowledged in presence of Rich^d Minor, Rob^t Henry

At a County Court held for Nelson County, on Monday the fourteenth day of December 1891

This last will and Testament of Charles Miner died was proved by the oaths of Nicholas Miner and Robert King subscribing witnesses thereof and ~~was~~ ~~renewed~~ ~~renewed~~ renewed to by William Miner the Executor therein named and authorized to be received, And on the petition of the said Executor Certificate is granted him for obtaining probate thereof in due form he having given bond with Nicholas Miner his Security in the penalty of one thousand pounds conditioned as the Law directs
Teste Benj. Grayson Clk