and the undersigned in Obidicut to and Order from the monthful Court of Nelson had examined the Act and Voucher of the E^{rs} of Philip Brund and arranged them as above. No 15. was presented by Jacob Marks having married the widow. The negro Woman married of the children changed for was left to the Widow during life. But if she the widow married, the increase of s^d negro Woman (fanny) was to be hired out for the benefit of the W^m her, and as the Widow did marry and has no friend from the Obidicut after they and able to labour, we passed the Act. Subject monthful to your contract. and have made no allusion to the Act for their service, concluding we was not authorized by the Order. John Bodend
