And the Estate

and the undersigned in Obidiant to an Order from the monthful Court of Nelson had examined the Act and Voucher of the E^{rs} of Philip Brund and arranged them as above. No 15. was presented by Jacob Marks having married the widow. The negro Woman married of the children changed for was left to the Widow during life. But if she the widow married, the increase of s^d negro Woman (fanny) was to be hired out for the benefit of the W^{id}ow's heirs, and as the Widow did marry and has no friend from the Obidiant after they and able to labour, we passed the Act. Subject monthship to your contract. and have made no allment to the E^{rs} for their services, concluding we was not authorized by the Order. John Robinson
