8) I Robert Allen of Nelson County, State of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory, but in low and uncertain health do make & Ordain this my last will and Testament hereby revoke all former wills. First I will that all my just debts be paid, and altho' they are not either numerous or large yet that in their payment, there may be no injurious sacrifice of my property. It is my will that my Executors hereinafter named do as soon as convenient after my deceased will at private or public sale, at their discretion, such of my personal estate as can be (in the opinion of my beloved wife) most conveniently disposed. This provision is upon the presented that the debts due to me may not be collected in time to meet the demands against me. But if they shall my Executors are nevertheless to sell as fast as much of my personal Estate and such of it, as in the opinion of my dear Wife would be least useful and most profitable liable to abuse and injury. This sale whether public or private to be on such credit and under such terms as are in their discretion will best promote the convenience of my Creditors and the Interest of my Legacies.
Item I will and bequeath to my most excellent and dearly beloved wife to her and her heirs forever her young and latter Slave, viz. a Girl named Louisa and a Boy named Henry; and I will and Order that all the balance and residue of my estate both real and personal after the Exceptions hereinafter excepted be devoted by its use useful profits and results, to her sustenance, convenience and comfort for and during the term of her natural life. At her Death it is my will and desire that my whole Estate thus usefully enjoyed by her, be divided in and belong to my Sweet and amiable little
