In Beginning god's name, first I commend my body to the grave in a Christian like manner, to go the way of all living. First of all to my beloved wife, I bequeath all my property during her life, or her widowhood, only my son John he is to have the half of the clear land, and he may clear more if he sees cause. he is to work and take care of the family, and to have the slaves to help him to work, and if he should chose to build an house let him build where it will best suit him and the land, and at the death of my property to be equally divided among my five children, and if any of them should die without heirs (Wife) while she are minors, their part to be equally divided among the other four. further my little son James he must have taught the five common Rules, and the Rules of three perfectly, and to read well in the bible, and to write a legible hand. further if my widow and my son John should see an advantage in selling the land, they have full power so to do, so that the pay may be reserved carefully for the heirs. I constitute my Wife and my son John my Executors, and my son John Guardian for my children, this I desire to be recorded as my last will and Testament. Given under my hand this second day of December 1803.
