

In the name of God: I, John Morgan of Nicholas County and State of Kentucky, being sick in body and in a low state of health: yet perfectly sound in mind and memory, thank be to God for it, but calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die: I do make and declare this my last Will and Testament. What is to say first of all I do recommend my soul to God who give it and my body to the Earth from whence it came and to be buried in a decent manner, in hopes it shall be restored at the resurrection. And as touching such worldly effects as it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I do give and bequeath in the manner following: first of all my lawful debts to be discharged: second to my true and loving wife Agnes Morgan, I do give and bequeath the one third of my Estate real and personal and all the household furniture: two cows and all the hog barn and pigs, except what Samuel Keneal is to have, and also the half of the Wheat for the use of the family: Thirdly I do allow and bequeath to my two children, Malviah and Jefferson all the rest of my Estate, real and personal, to be equally divided between them, except me free of school fees which I allow to my Daughter Malviah.
And if both my children should die before they are of full age I do allow their part to be given to their Mother. I also do allow and appoint my wife Agnes and Russ Morgan my whole and sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament and I do hereby revoke, do allow and declare all and every other former testament, Will or bequest to nullify and confirm this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have set my hand and affixed my seal this thirtieth day of December in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and seven.
